

ELECTION RETURNS 1999

Volume II
(Financial Statistics)

NOVA SCOTIA

PREFACE TO VOLUME II

This volume of the 1999 Election Returns contains the financial statistics from the Thirty-fifth General Election, held on July 27, 1999.

There were 178 candidates nominated for this election. Out of this number, 142 candidates received the necessary threshold of 15% of the valid votes cast in their electoral districts, which qualified them for public funding. Total public funding amounted to $1,954,542.56 in 1999. By comparison, in the Thirty-fourth General Election, held on March 24, 1998, 144 candidates out of 163 nominated qualified for public funding of $1,970,440.40; and 129 candidates out of 180 nominated in the Thirty-third General Election, held on May 25, 1993, qualified for public funding of $1,654,618.90.

On the expense side, total election expenses reported by candidates and parties in 1999 was $5,316,426.83. By comparison, candidates and parties spent $5,070,539.50 in 1998, and $5,468,032.31 in 1993.

Total expenses to the Province for the election, excluding reimbursement to candidates, was $3,766,962.69. This compares to $3,992,759.60 in 1998, and $3,571,156.22 for 1993. These figures do not include the cost of supplies, and other related expenses, which are expended between elections in order to be "election ready" when an election is actually called.
